Somatic
Psychotherapy:
Personal
Reflections

DVD & VIDEO INTERVIEW WITH JEFF BARLOW

Pathways TV March 2004

JEFF BARLOW, Director
Australian College of Contemporary Somatic
Psychotherapy

A video and DVD recording of Jeff Barlow, one of Australia's leading somatic psychotherapists, sharing his personal thoughts and feelings about somatic psychotherapy and how he became involved in his work as a somatic psychotherapist.

Jeff was interviewed on television in March 2004 on the Pathways™ programme and you now have an opportunity to purchase a copy of this 25 minute interview at a very special price.

In the comfort of your own home you can hear one of Australia's leading somatic psychotherapists speak about:

§ What is somatic psychotherapy?

What does it mean to be embodied?

§ Who comes to individual sessions, personal development groups and to training programmes in somatic psychotherapy?

§ What were the personal experiences that led to Jeff becoming personally involved in his life work?

§ What is the significance of emotions in our lives?

§ How does society impact on us and how can somatic psychotherapy help in creating greater personal attunement and new directions in life?

§ And much more!!
